

Mary Immaculate College, Limerick invites the public to join with us to celebrate
Culture Night on Friday 20 September
All events are free and open to the public

4 - 5pm: A Crash Course in Half Man Half Biscuit

Come and learn a little about Half Man Half Biscuit, the most important English folk band of the last 50 years. Hear and maybe even learn a song or two and design a HMHB t-shirt with Niall Quinn – frontman of Irish HMHB tribute, ahead of their Culture Night shows in Dolan's Limerick. Register via Eventbrite

Location: G14, Foundation Building

5 - 6pm: Ceol an Fhómhair

Buail fút agus bain tairneamh as ceol ar an gcláirseach agus an fhidil, agus amhráin áille. Sit back and relax to the sound of harp and fiddle and beautiful song from Catherine Joyce and Róisín Ní Chonchúir, who were the recipients of the inaugural Ashling Murphy Memorial Entrance Scholarship last year.

Location: G08, Foundation Building

5 - 6pm : The Engine Room Art Exhibition

Prior to an artist displaying their artwork/s in the public domain, there is much preparation involved that goes unseen in the artist studio. In this exhibition, The Visual Arts in Education team at MIC, who are both artists and educators, aim to showcase their visual ideas, sketches, photography, research and studies.

Location: Main Reception, Foundation Building

5:30 - 6pm : Claiming the National Anthems of Ireland: God Save the King and Amhrán na bhFiann

This talk by Dr Michael Murphy, Department of Music at MIC, will examine how the British national anthem was weaponised by Daniel O'Connell to marginalise the Orangemen and it will delve into the contentious struggle over The Soldier's Song during the Irish Civil War.

Location: G10, Foundation Building

6 - 6:45pm : Limerick City's Coat of Arms: A Visual Review

This event will provide a short history on Limerick City's Coat of Arms by local PhD Kevin Stevenson, reviewing its appearance within the City and a presentation of a rare depiction of the emblem.

Location: G10, Foundation Building

5 - 7:15pm : Tour of MIC Chapel and Redemptorist Church

The MIC chapel was built in 1906 and this guided tour will explore its history, architectural features and religious significance. After this tour the group will be invited to walk to the nearby Redemptorist Church (dedicated in 1862) where Fr Seamus Enright will give a guided tour of the Church's beautiful architecture as well as its spiritual, social and religious significance.

Meeting Point: Main Reception, Foundation Building
